

No: DNHPDA/GNL(81)/Ease Doing Business/2015/168

Dated: 09.11.2020
1-2

ORDER

The applicant taking construction permission does not require separate permission for storage of construction material on their site. However, in the case of stacking building material on public roads, the applicant has to follow of Development Control Rules, 2014 and charges shall be paid as per table mentioned in Clause 6.13 of DC rule.

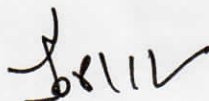

6.13 Charges for Stacking of Building Materials on Public Roads

The stacking of building materials, sand debris on public roads, highways shall be prohibited except with special permission of the Authority. Where such permission has been granted, the license fee for depositing building materials and debris on public roads, highways etc. shall be as follows:-

Table 2: Charges for stacking building materials on public roads

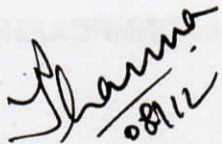

(a) For construction of residential Detached building	Rs.5/- per Sq.m of plot size per week.
(b) For construction of housing complex	Rs.10/- per Sq.m of plot size per Week.
(c) For construction of non-residential building	Rs.10/- per Sq.m of plot size per week
(d) For Government /Semi-govt /Public Sector undertakings.	Special rates as notified by the Authority with the approval of the Administrator.

Note: The stacking of materials would be permitted till the completion of the building. If after completion of the building, in the opinion of the Authority certain material have not been cleared or left in stage of causing annoyance or inconvenience, the Authority shall take necessary actions against the owner/applicant and any cost incurred in the removal of such material, which has been carried out by the Authority, shall be recovered from the owner /applicant.

This is issued with the approval of Collector, DNH/ Chairman, DNHPDA vide FTS No. 54504 dated 05/12/2020.

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'Sharma', with the date '05/12' written below it.

(Dr. Apurva Sharma)
Member Secretary,
DNHPDA