(i) to the effect that the permission granted is only for limited period and that after the expiry of that period, the land shall be restored to its previous conditions or the use of the land so permitted shall be discontinued; or

(ii) for regulating the development or use of any land under the control of the applicant or for the carrying out of works on any such land an may appear to the Planning and Development Authority expedient for the purpose of the permitted development.

(4) The Planning and Development Authority in dealing with the applications for permission under this section shall have regard to --.

(i) the provisions of any Development Plan which has come into operation;

(ii) the proposals or provisions which it thinks are likely to be made in any Development Plan under preparation, or to be prepared; and

(iii) any other material consideration.

(5) When permission is granted subject to conditions or is refused, the grounds for imposing such conditions or such refusal shall be recorded in writing in the order and such order shall be communicated to the applicant in the manner prescribed.

45. Appeal against orders passed or omitted to be passed under section 44. – (1) Any applicant may appeal to the Board (a) where he is aggrieved by an order passed under section 44 within two months of the communication of that order to him, (b) where no order is passed, after the expiry of a period of three months from the date of submission of the application.

(2) An appeal under sub-section (1) shall be preferred in such manner and accompanied with such fees, not exceeding five hundred rupees, as may be prescribed.

(3) The Board may, after giving a reasonable opportunity of being heard to the appellant and the concerned Planning and Development Authority, pass an order –

- (a) granting permission unconditionally; or
- (b) granting permission subject to such conditions as it may think fit, or
- (c) refusing permission :

Provided that the Board shall dispose of every appeal within three months of the date of preferring the same and is not so disposed it shall be deemed that the prayer of the appellant is granted.

46. Validity of permission. – Every permission granted under this Act shall remain in force for a period of three years from the date of such permission provided that the planning and development ----- case exceed three years.

Provided further that the lapse of any such permission shall not bar any subsequent application for fresh permission under this Act.

47. Obligation to acquire land on refusal of permission or on grant of permission in certain cases. – (1) Where any person aggrieved by an order in appeal under section 45 refusing to grant permission or granting permission subject to conditions, claims –

- (a) that the land has become incapable of reasonably beneficial use in the existing state, or
- b) in a case where permission was granted subject to conditions, that the land cannot be rendered capable of reasonably beneficial use by carrying out the development in accordance with such conditions, he may, within three months from the date of passing of such order and in the manner prescribed, serve on the Administrator a notice requiring the Government to acquire his interest in such land (hereinafter in this section and in section 54, referred to as an acquisition notice).

(2) A copy of the acquisition notice shall also be served on the Board and the Planning and Development Authority concerned.

(3) After receiving the notice under sub-section (1) the Administrator shall appoint a person who shall, after giving a reasonable opportunity of being heard to the person serving the acquisition notice, the concerned Planning and Development Authority and the Board, submit a report thereon to the Administrator.

(4) After receiving the report under sub-section (3), the Administrator shall-

(a) (i) If he is satisfied that any of the conditions specified in clause (a) or clause (b) of sub-section (1) is not fulfilled; or

(ii) If the order appealed against was passed on the ground that any of the provisions of this Act, or the rules made thereunder had not been complied with, pass an order refusing to confirm the notice;
or

(b) If he is satisfied that any of the conditions specified in clause (a) or clause (b) of sub-section (1) is fulfilled, pass an order –

(i) confirming the notice; or

(ii) directing the Planning and Development Authority to grant such permission or to alter the conditions in such a way as will keep the land or part thereof capable of reasonably beneficial use.

(5) If within the period of one year from the date on which an acquisition notice is served under sub-section (1), the Administrator had not passed any order under sub-section (4), the notice shall be deemed to have been confirmed on the expiration of such period.

(6) On an acquisition notice being confirmed under sub-section (4) or deemed to have been confirmed under sub-section (5), the Government shall proceed to acquire the land or part thereof in respect of which the notice has been confirmed, within one year of such confirmation.

48. Compensation for refusal of permission or grant of permission subject to conditions in certain cases. – (1) Where an order in appeal under section 45 refusing to grant permission to develop the land or granting of such permission subject to conditions, relates to, -

(a) the re-erection of a building which has been destroyed or demolished and such re-erection does not exceed the cubic content of the original building by more than one-tenth; or

(b) the enlargement, improvement or other alteration of any building which was in existence on the date of coming into operation of the Development Plan for the first time, and such enlargement or improvement or alteration does not exceed the cubic content of that building by more than one tenth; or

(c) the carrying out, on any land used for the purposes of agriculture, of any building or other operation required for that purpose, other than operations for the erection, enlargement, improvement or alteration of a building for human habitation or of a building used for the purpose of marketing the produce of land; or

(d) where any part of any building or other land which on the date of coming into operation of the Development Plan for the first time is used for a particular purpose, the use for that purpose of any additional part of the building or land not exceeding one-tenth of the cubic content of the part of the building used for that purpose on that date, or as the case may be, one-tenth of the area of the land so used on that date the owner may, if he had not served an acquisition notice under section 47 or if he had served such notice, the same had not been confirmed under that section, within such time and in such manner as may be prescribed, claim upon the Planning and Development Authority compensation for the refusal of such permission or for the grant thereof subject to conditions:

Provided that no compensation shall be claimed if such refusal or grant of permission subject to conditions was by reason of any provisions in the Development Plan.

(2) The compensation, if any, payable under sub-section (1) shall be equal to –

(a) Where permission is refused, the difference between the value of the land if the permission had been granted and the value of the land in its existing state;

(b) where permission is granted subject to conditions the difference between the value of the land if the permission had been granted unconditionally and the value of the land when permission is granted subject to conditions.

(3) When a claim under sub-section (1) is received by the Planning and Development Authority, it shall, after giving an opportunity of being heard to the claimant, assess the amount of compensation payable and offer it to the claimant.

(4) If the claimant does not accept the compensation offered under sub-section (3) and gives notice, within such time as may be prescribed, of such refusal, the Planning and Development Authority shall refer the matter for the adjudication of the District Court and the decision of that Court shall be final and binding on the owner and the Planning and Development Authority.

49. Sanction for subdivision of plot or layout of private street and restriction on registration of purchase, Sale or transfer of immovable property. – (1) Any person intending to sub-divide his plot or make or layout a private street, on or after the date on which a public notice of the preparation of a Development Plan is published under sub-section (1) of section 35 shall submit the layout plan together with the prescribed particulars to the Planning and Development Authority for sanction.

(2) The Planning and Development Authority may within the prescribed period, sanction such plan other with or without modifications and conditions as it considers expedient or may refuse to give sanction if it is of the opinion that such subdivision, making or layout is not in conformity with the proposals contained in a Development Plan.

(3) When the sanction is granted subject to conditions or refused, the grounds for imposing such conditions or such refusal shall be recorded in writing in the order and such order shall be communicated to the applicant in the manner prescribed.

(4) If any person does any work in contravention of the provisions of sub-section (1) or in contravention of the modifications and conditions of the sanction granted under sub-section (2) or in spite of the sanction under sub-section (2),. The Planning and Development Authority may direct such person by notice in writing to stop any work in progress and after making an inquiry in the prescribed manner, remove or pull down any work or restore the land to its original condition.

(5) Any expenses incurred by the Planning and Development Authority under sub-section (4) shall be a sum due to the Planning and Development Authority under this Act from the person in default.

(6) Notwithstanding anything contained in any other law for the time being in force, where any document required to be registered under the provisions of sub-section (1) of section 29 of the Registration Act 1908, purports to transfer, assign, limit or extinguish the right, title or interest of any person, to or in any property or land within a planning area, no registering officer appointed under that Act shall register any such document, unless the owner of such property or land produces a certificate of sanction or a certificate of no objection from the Planning and Development Authority exercising jurisdiction in respect of the planning area:

provided that no such certificate of sanction or no objection shall be required to be produced if the sub-division of land or the making or layout of any property results from the rights of inheritance within a family.

50. Power to revoke or modify permission to develop. – (1) If it appears to the Planning and Development Authority that, having regard to the Development Plan prepared or under preparation or to be prepared and any other material consideration, it is necessary and expedient that any permission to develop land granted under this Act or any other law, ought to be revoked or modified, it may, by order, revoke or modify such permission to such extent as appears to it to be necessary:

Provided that –

(a) where the permission relates to the carrying out of building or other operations, no such order,

(i) shall affect such of the operations as have been previously carried out; or

(ii) shall be passed after such operations have been completed.

(b) where permission relates to a change of use of land no such order shall be passed at any time after such change has taken place.

(2) When permission is revoked or modified by an order made under sub-section (1), the owner may, within such time and in such manner as may be prescribed, claim compensation for the expenditure incurred in carrying out any work in accordance with such permission and which has been rendered abortive by the revocation or modification of permission.

(3) Where a claim under sub-section (2) is received by the Planning and Development Authority it shall, after giving an opportunity of being heard to the claimant assess the amount of compensation payable and offer it to the claimant.

(4) If the claimant does not accept the compensation offered under sub-section (3), and gives notice, within such time as may be prescribed, of such refusal, the Planning and Development Authority shall refer the matter for the adjudication of the District Court and the Decision of that Court shall be final and binding on the claimant and the Planning and Development Authority.

51. Penalty for unauthorised Development, etc. - (1) Any person who, either by himself or at the instance of any other person, commences, undertakes or carries out development of, or changes the use of any land –

(a) In contravention of any Development Plan; or

(b) without obtaining a certificate regarding development charge under section 43; or

(c) without the permission as required under this Act; or

- (d) in contravention of any condition subject to which such permission has been granted; or
- (e) after the permission for development has been revoked under section 50; or
- (f) in contravention of the permission which has been modified under section 50, shall be punishable with fine which may extend to ten thousand rupees and in the case of a continuing contravention with a further fine which may extend to five hundred rupees for every day during which such contravention is continued after conviction for the first such contravention.

(2) Any person who continues to use or allows the use of any land or building in contravention of the provisions of a Development Plan without having been allowed under section 42, or where the continuance of such use has been allowed under that section, continues such use after the period for which the use has been allowed or without complying with the terms and conditions under which the continuance of such use is allowed, shall be punishable with fine which may extend to five thousand rupees, and in the case of a continuing contravention with a further fine which may extend to two hundred and fifty rupees for every day during which such contravention is continued after conviction for the first such contravention.

52. Power to require removal of unauthorised development. – (1) where any development or change of use of land has been carried out in any manner specified in clauses (a) to (f) of sub-section (1) of section 51; the Planning and Development Authority may, within four years of such development or change, serve on the owner a notice requiring him, within such period, being not less than one month from the date of service of such notice as may be specified therein, to take any of the following steps as may be specified in the notice, namely:-

- (a) in the cases specified in clause (a) or clause (c) or clause (e) of the said sub-section to restore the land to its condition before the said development took place;

(3) A Planning and Development Authority may also rectify such errors or omissions, if any, as may have been brought to its notice after publication or public notice of the sanction of the final scheme.

(4) Where any variations are made in the final scheme under sub-section (2) or any errors or omissions are rectified under sub-section (3), the Planning and Development Authority shall forward a copy of the final scheme as so varied and rectified to the Administrator for approval along with copies of the decisions in appeals.

79. Power to enforce scheme. – (1) On and after the day on which the final scheme comes into force, the Planning and Development Authority may, after giving the prescribed notice and in accordance with the provisions of the scheme.

(a) remove, pull down or alter any building or other work in the area included in the scheme, which is such as to contravene the scheme or in the erection or carrying out of which, any provisions of the scheme has not been complied with;

(b) execute any work which it is the duty of any person to execute under the scheme, in any case where it appears to the Planning and Development Authority that delay in the execution of the work would prejudice the efficient operation of the scheme.

(2) Any expenses incurred by the Planning and Development Authority under this section may be recovered from the persons in default or from the owner of the plot in the manner provided for the recovery of the sums due to the Planning and Development Authority under the provisions of this Act.

(3) If any question arises as to whether any building or work contravenes a town Planning scheme, or whether any provision of a town planning scheme is not complied with in the erection of any such building, it shall be referred to the Administrator or Chief Town Planner if authorized by the Administrator in this behalf, and the decision of the Administrator or the Chief Town Planner, as the case may be, shall be final and binding on all persons.

80. Power of Planning and Development Authority to evict summarily. – On and after the day on which a final scheme comes into force, any person continuing to occupy any land which he is not entitled to occupy under the final scheme may, in accordance with the prescribed procedure, be summarily evicted by the Planning and Development Authority or any of its officers authorized in that behalf by that authority. If the Planning and Development Authority is opposed or impeded in evicting such person or taking possession of the land from such person, the Chief Judicial Magistrate shall, at the request of the Planning and Development Authority, enforce the eviction of such person or secure delivery of possession of the land to the Planning and Development Authority.

81. Power to vary scheme on ground of error, irregularity or informality. – (1) If after the final scheme comes into force, the Planning and Development Authority considers that the scheme is defective on account of any error, defect or irregularity, the Planning and Development Authority may apply in writing to the Administrator through the Chief Town Planner for the variation of the scheme.

(2) If, on receiving such application or otherwise, the Administrator is satisfied that the variation required is not substantial, the Administrator shall publish a draft of such variation in the prescribed manner.

(3) The draft variation published under sub-section (2) shall state every amendment proposed to be made in the scheme, and if any such amendment relates to a matter specified in any of the clauses (a) to (k) of sub-section (2) of section 56 the draft variation shall also contain such other particulars as may be prescribed.

(4) The draft variation shall be open to the inspection of the public at the office of the Planning and Development Authority.

(5) Within one month of the date of publication of the draft variation, any person affected thereby may communicate in writing his objections to such variation to the Administrator through the Chief Town Planner and send a copy thereof to the Planning and Development Authority.

(6) On the expiry of the period referred to in sub-section (5), the Administrator may, after consulting the Chief Town Planner and the Planning and Development Authority and after making such inquiry as it may think fit, by notification, approve the variation with or without modification or refuse to make the variation.

(7) From the date of the notification making the variation, with or without modifications such variation shall take effect as if it were incorporated in the scheme.

82. Power to vary or revoke Town Planning Scheme.- (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in section 81, a town planning scheme may at any time be varied or revoked by a subsequent scheme made, published and sanctioned in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

(2) The Administrator may, either on his own motion or on the application of the Planning and Development Authority, after making such inquiry as he deems fit and after giving the Planning and Development Authority concerned an opportunity of being heard and after consulting the Chief Town Planner, by notification, revoke a town planning scheme, if he is satisfied that under the special circumstances of the case the scheme should be revoked.

83. Compensation when the final scheme is varied or revoked and apportionment of costs.- (1) if at any time after the final scheme has come into force, such scheme is varied or revoked, any person who has incurred expenditure for the purpose of complying with the provisions of such scheme, as it stood before such variation shall be entitled to receive compensation from the Planning and Development Authority, in so far as any such expenditure is rendered abortive by reason of the variation or revocation of such scheme.

(2) In the event of sanction to a final scheme being refused by the Administrator or a final scheme being revoked, the Administrator may direct that the costs of the scheme shall be borne by the Planning and Development Authority or be paid to the Planning and Development Authority by the owners concerned, in such proportion as the Administrator may in each case determine.

84. Joint Town Planning Scheme. – (1) When two or more Planning and Development Authorities are of the opinion that the interests of contiguous areas within their respective jurisdictions can best be served by the constitution of a Joint Town Planning Authority and the Administrator agrees with such opinion, a Joint Town Planning Authority shall be constituted.

(2) A Joint Town Planning Authority shall consist of such number of representatives of each of the several Planning and Development Authorities concerned as may be prescribed and elected in the prescribed manner and of persons nominated by the Administrator in such manner as may be prescribed.

(3) A Joint Town Planning Authority, when duly constituted, shall make a declaration of its intention to make a joint town planning scheme in respect of the contiguous areas in the manner provided in section 56 and thereafter the said Authority shall have all the powers and be liable to all the duties of the Planning and Development Authority under this Act and all the provisions in respect of the procedure for the preparation of a town planning scheme so far as may be, apply to a joint town planning scheme.

(4) A draft joint town planning scheme shall specify the parts of the scheme to be executed by the several Planning and Development Authorities in the several contiguous areas and the several parts of the scheme shall, when notified in the final scheme, have effect in the several contiguous areas, as if they were separate schemes;

Provided that any part of a joint town planning scheme may be executed jointly by two or more Planning and Development Authorities.

85. Delegation of certain powers to Joint Town Planning Authority.- A Joint Town Planning Authority, may by order in writing, direct that all of any of the powers conferred on it by section 66, sub-section (1) of section 70 and section 79 shall, in such circumstances and under such conditions if any, as may be specified in the order, be exercised by such officer as the Joint Town Planning Authority may specify in the order.

86. Costs of a scheme. – (1) The costs of a town planning scheme shall include-

(a) all sums payable by the Planning and Development Authority under the provisions of this Act, which are not specifically excluded from the costs of the scheme;

(b) all sums spent or estimated to be spent by the Planning and Development Authority in the making and in the execution of the scheme;

(c) all sums payable as compensation for land reserved or designated for a public purpose or purposes of the Planning and Development Authority, which is solely beneficial to the owner or residents within the area of the scheme;

(d) such portion of the sums payable as compensation for and reserved or designated for a public purpose or purposes of the Planning and Development Authority, which is beneficial partly to the owners or residents within the area of the scheme and partly to the general public, as is attributable to the benefit accruing to the owners or residents within the area of the scheme from such reservation or designation;

(e) all legal expenses incurred by the Planning and Development Authority in the making and in the execution of the scheme;

(f) any amount by which the total of the values of the original plots exceeds the total of the values of the plots included in the final scheme, each of such plots being estimated at its market value on the date of publication of the draft scheme, with all the buildings and works thereon on that date and without reference to improvements contemplated in the scheme other than improvements due to alteration of its boundaries:-

(2) If, in any case, the total of the values of the plots included in the final scheme exceeds the total of values of original plots, each of such plots being estimated in the manner provided in clause (f) of sub-section (1), then the amount of such excess shall be deducted in arriving at the costs of the scheme, as specified in sub-section (1).

87. Calculation of increment. – For the purposes of this Act the increment shall be deemed to be the amount by which on the date of the declaration of intention to make a scheme, the market value of a plot included in the final scheme estimated the assumption that the scheme has been completed would exceed on the same date the market value of the same plot estimated without reference to improvements contemplated in the scheme.

Provided that in estimating such values, the value of buildings or other works erected or in the course of erection on such plot shall not be taken into consideration.

88. Contribution towards costs of scheme. – (1) The costs of a town planning scheme shall be met wholly or in part by contributions to be levied by the Planning and Development Authority on each plot included in the final scheme calculated in proportion to the increment which is estimated to accrue in respect of such plot by the Planning and Development Authority.

Provided that –

- (a) no such contribution shall exceed one-third of the increment estimated by the Planning and Development Authority to accrue in respect of such plot;
- (b) where a plot is subject to a mortgage with possession or to a lease, the Planning and Development Authority shall determine in what proportion the mortgagee or lessee on the one hand and the mortgagor or lessor on the other shall pay such contribution;
- (c) no such contribution shall be levied on a plot used, allotted or reserved for a public purpose or purposes of the Planning and Development Authority which is solely for the benefit of the owners of plots, or residents within the area of such scheme; and

(d) the contribution levied on a plot used, allotted or reserved for a public purpose, or purposes of the Planning and Development Authority, which is beneficial partly to the owner or residents within the area of the scheme and partly to the general public shall be calculated in proportion to the benefit estimated to accrue to the general public from such use, allotment or reservation.

(2) The owner of each plot included in the final scheme shall be primarily liable for the payment of the contribution leviable in respect of such plot.

89. Certain amount to be added or deducted from contribution leviable from a person. – The amount by which the total value of the plots included in the final scheme with all the buildings and works thereon allotted to a person falls short of, or exceeds the total value of the original plots with all the buildings and works thereon of such person shall, as the case may be, be deducted from or added to the contribution leviable from such person, each of such plots being estimated at its market value on the date of the declaration of intention to make a scheme or the date of a notification under section 63 and without reference to improvements contemplated in the scheme other than improvements due to the alteration of its boundaries.

90. Transfer of right from original to reconstituted plot or extinction of such right.- Any right in an original plot which in the opinion of the Planning and Development Authority is capable of being transferred wholly or in part without prejudice to the making of a town planning scheme to a reconstituted plot shall be so transferred and any right in an original plot which in the opinion of the Planning and Development Authority is not capable of being so transferred shall be extinguished.

Provided that an agricultural lease shall not be transferred from an original plot to a reconstituted plot without the consent of all the parties to such lease.

91. Compensation in respect of property or right injuriously affected by scheme. – (1) The owner of any property or right which is injuriously affected by the making of a town planning scheme shall, if he makes a claim before the Planning and Development Authority within the prescribed time, be entitled to obtain compensation in respect thereof from the Planning and Development Authority or partly from the Planning and Development Authority and partly from such person as the Planning and Development Authority may in each case determine.

(2) For the purposes of this section, the market value of any property or right on the date of the declaration of intention to make a scheme or the date of a notification under section 63 without reference to the improvements contemplated in the scheme shall be deemed to be the value of such property or right.

92. Exclusion or limitation of compensation in certain cases. - (1) No compensation shall be payable in respect of any property or private right which is alleged to be injuriously affected by reason of any provisions contained in the town planning scheme, if under any other law for the time being in force applicable to the area for which such scheme is made, compensation is payable for such injurious affection.

(2) Any property or private right shall not be deemed to be injuriously affected under this section by reason merely of any provision included in a town planning scheme, which, for the purpose of providing amenities in the area included in such scheme or part thereof, imposes any conditions and restrictions in regard to any of the matters specified in clause (a) of section 60.

93. Provision for cases in which amount payable to owner exceeds amount due from him. - If the owner of an original plot is not provided with a plot in the final scheme or if the contribution to be levied from him under section 88 is less than the total amount payable to him under any of the provisions of this Act, the net amount of his loss shall be payable to him by the Planning and Development Authority in cash or in such other manner as may be agreed upon by the parties.

94. Provisions for cases in which value of developed plots is less than the amount payable by owner. - (1) if, for any reason the total amount, which would be due to the Planning and Development Authority under the provisions of this Act from the owner of a plot to be included in the final scheme exceeds the value of such plot estimated on the assumption that the scheme has been completed, the Planning and Development Authority may direct the owner of such plot to make payment to the Planning and Development Authority of the amount of such excess.

(2) If the owner fails to make the payment referred to in sub-section (1) within the prescribed period, the Planning and Development Authority shall acquire the original plot of such defaulter on payment of compensation estimated at its market value on the date of the declaration of intention to make a scheme or the date of notification under section 63 and without reference to improvements contemplated in the scheme to the owner and other persons interested in the plot, and thereupon the said plot included in the final scheme shall vest absolutely in the Planning and Development Authority free from all encumbrances.

Provided that the payment made by the Planning and Development Authority on account of the value of the original plot shall not be included in the cost of the scheme.

95. Payment by adjustment of accounts.- All payments due to be made to any person by the Planning and Development Authority under this Act, shall, as far as possible, be made by adjustment in such person's account with the Planning and Development Authority in respect of the plot concerned or of any other plot in which he has an interest and failing such adjustment shall be paid in cash or in such other manner as may be agreed upon by the parties.

96. Payment of net amount due to Planning and Development Authority. – (1) The net amount payable under the provisions of this Act by the owner of a plot included in the final scheme, may, at his option, be paid in lumpsum or in annual installments not exceeding ten, if the owner elects to pay the amount by installments, interest at the rate of six per cent per annum shall be charged on the net amount payable. If the owner of a plot fails to so elect on or before the date specified in a notice issued to him, he shall be deemed to have elected to pay the contribution by installments and the interest on the contribution shall be calculated from the date specified in the notice.

(2) Where two or more plots included in the final scheme are in the same ownership, the net amount payable by such owner under the provisions of this Act shall be distributed over his several plots in proportion to the increment which is estimated to accrue in respect of each plot, unless the owner and the Planning and Development Authority agree to a different method of distribution.

97. Power of Planning and Development Authority to make agreements.- (1) A Planning and Development Authority shall be competent to make any agreement with any person in respect of any matter which is to be provided for in a town planning scheme, subject to the power of the Administrator to modify or disallow such agreement, and unless it is otherwise expressly provided therein, such agreement shall take effect on and from the date on which the town planning scheme comes into force.

(2) An agreement made under sub-section (1) shall not in any way affect the determination of the matters specified in section 91 or the rights of third parties.

Provided that, if the agreement is modified by the Administrator, under that sub-section, either party shall have the option of avoiding it if it so elects.

98. Recovery of arrears. – (1) Any sum due to the Planning and Development Authority under this Act or any regulation made thereunder shall be a first charge on the plot on which it is due, subject to the prior payment of land revenue, if any, due to the Government thereon.

(2) Any sums due to the Planning and Development Authority under this Act or any regulation made thereunder which is not paid on the date fixed by the Planning and Development Authority, of which due notice is given, shall be recoverable by it by distress and sale of the goods of the defaulter and may be recovered from him by a suit in any court of competent jurisdiction.

(3) In lieu of the recovery of the dues of the Planning and Development Authority in the manner provided under sub-section (2) or after recovery in part of the dues of the Planning and Development Authority in the manner provided in sub-section (2), any sum due or the balance of any sum due, as the case may be, by such defaulter may be recovered from him by a suit in any court of competent jurisdiction.

99. Power to borrow money for Development Plan for making or execution of a town planning scheme.- (1) A Planning and Development Authority may borrow money at such rate of interest and for such period and upon such terms, as the Administrator may approve, for the purpose of a Development Plan or the making or execution of a town planning scheme.

(2) Any expenses incurred by a Planning and Development Authority or the Government under this Act in connection with the making and execution of a Development Plan or a town planning scheme shall be defrayed out of the funds of the Planning and Development Authority.
